Love You - The Free Design

Melody starts
Give a little time for the child within you,
Don't be afraid to be young and free.
Undo the locks and throw away the keys
And take off your shoes and socks, and run you.

Bass and Alto enter
La, la, la...

All play their parts together
Give a little time for the child within you,
Don't be afraid to be young and free.
Undo the locks and throw away the keys
And take off your shoes and socks, and run you.
Run through the meadow and scare up the milking cows
Run down the beach kicking clouds of sand
Walk a windy weather day, feel your face blow away
Stop and listen: Love you.

Roll like a circus clown, put away your circus frown
Ride on a roller coaster upside down
Waltzing Matilda, Carey loves a kinkatchoo
Joey catch a kangaroo, hug you.
Dandelion, milkweed, silky on a sunny sky
Reach out and hitch a ride and float on by
Balloons down below catching colors of the rainbow
Red, blue and yellow-green: I love you.

Altos take the melody, Bass and Melody
Bicycles, tricycles, ice cream candy
Lollypops, popsicles, licorice sticks
Solomon Grundy, Raggedy Andy
Tweedledum and Tweedledee, home free.

Bass takes melody, Melody and Altos echo
Cowboys and Indians, puppydogs and sandpails
Beachballs and baseballs and basketballs, too.

All together, slower
I love forget-me-nots, fluffernutters, sugarpops (pause…)
I'll hug you and kiss you and love you

Bass starts, Melody and Altos layer in La, la, la la la la…..
Love you.
